

City of Atlanta,

v

Chattanooga Foundry & Pipe Works, et al.

No. 647.

Game the parties by their attorneys, came also the same

Jury, to wit, Sam DeArmond, J. B. King, Bruce Guthrie, John L. Chris-tion, John Barnett, Thomas Hines, B. B. Goforth, I. L. Glaves,

Wm. Thomas, J. H. Farmer and J. H. Price, who were on yesterday, rendering a verdict against the defendants, Chattanooga Foundry & Pipe Works, and who now upon this day find the issue in favor of the plaintiff, and assess plaintiff's damages, together with Twenty-five Hundred Dollars, and attorney's fee.

And the reason, on motion of plaintiff's attorneys, and it appearing to the Court that this is a suit under Section 7 of the Acts of Congress, commonly called the Anti-Trust Act; it is ordered and adjudged by the Court that the plaintiff's damages be trebled, pursuant to the provisions of said act, making in the agree-gate, when so trebled, the sum of Forty-five Hundred ($4,500.00)

Dollars, and which, together with the attorney's fee of Twenty-five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars, makes a total aggregate of Seven Thousand ($7,000.00) Dollars.

Whereupon it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff have and recover of the defendants, The Chattanooga Foundry & Pipe

Works and the South Pittsburg Pipe Company as damages said sum of Forty-five Hundred ($4,500.00) Dollars, together with the attorney's fee of Twenty-five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars, in all seven Thousand ($7,000.00) Dollars, and all the costs of the cause, for which execution is awarded.

In the U. S. Circuit Court

at CHATTAHOOGA

City of Atlanta

Against

Chattanooga Foundry & Pipe Works

Judgment

788
1902

114
1902

785

No.

647

56

City of Atlanta,

v

Chattanooga Foundry & Pipe Works, et al.

No. 647.

Came the parties by their attorneys, came also the same jury, to wit, Sam DeArmond, J. B. King, Bruce Guthrie, John L. Christian, John Barnett, Thomas Hughes, D. B. Gofourth, I. L. Gleaves, Wm. Thomas, Sol Geismar and J. L. Price, who were on yesterday from rendering a verdict respited until today, and who now upon their oaths do say that they find the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendants, Chattanooga Foundry & Pipe Works and the South Pittsburg Pipe Company, and assess plaintiff's damage at Fifteen Hundred ($1,500.00) Dollars, together with Twenty-five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars attorneys fee.

And thereupon, on motion of plaintiff's attorneys, and it appearing to the Court that this is a suit under Section 7 of the Acts of Congress, commonly called the Anti-Trust Act; it is ordered and adjudged by the Court that the plaintiff's damage be trebled, pursuant to the provisions of said act, making in the aggregate, when so trebled, the sum of Forty-five Hundred ($4,500.00) Dollars, and which, together with the attorneys fee of Twenty-five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars, makes a total aggregate of Seven Thousand ($7,000.00) Dollars.

Whereupon it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff have and recover of the defendants, The Chattanooga Foundry & Pipe Works and the South Pittsburg Pipe Company as damages said sum of Forty-five Hundred ($4,500.00) Dollars, together with the attorneys fee of Twenty-five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars, in all Seven Thousand ($7,000.00) Dollars, and all the costs of the cause, for which execution is awarded.