<sup>1</sup> The Direct Purchaser Damages Class consists of all persons or entities, or assignees of such persons or entities, who directly purchased vitamin C for delivery in the United States, other than pursuant to a contract containing an arbitration clause, from any of Defendants or their co-conspirators, other than Northeast Pharmaceutical (Group) Co. Ltd., from December 1, 2001 to June 30, 2006. Excluded from this class are all governmental entities, defendants, their co-conspirators, and their respective subsidiaries or affiliates.

<sup>2</sup> The Injunction Class consists of all persons or entities, or assignees of such persons or entities, who purchased vitamin C manufactured by Defendants for delivery in the United States, other than pursuant to a contract with a Defendant containing an arbitration clause, from December 1, 2001 to the present, requiring injunctive relief against Defendants to end Defendants' antitrust violations.

directed entry of judgment upon trebling the damage award pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 15(a), less Nine Million Dollars ($9,000,000) received from former defendants, and the Court, having entered its Memorandum Decision and Order of November 26, 2013, granting the motion of the Injunctive Class for a permanent injunction, it is hereby:

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, that The Ranis Company, as class representative, will take damages of defendants – Hebei Welcome Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. and North China Pharmaceutical Group Corp. – jointly and severally, in the amount of One Hundred Fifty Three Million Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($153,300,000); and it is further

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

1. Defendants, their officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, successors, assigns and those persons acting in concert with them who receive actual notice of this injunction, are each ENJOINED and RESTRAINED from agreeing, directly or indirectly, to fix the price or limit the supply of vitamin C sold in the United States in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1.

2. Any party may seek modification of this Order, at any time, by written motion and for good cause based on changed circumstances or otherwise.

3. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order. In the event that any part of this Order is violated by the parties named herein or other persons, Plaintiffs may, by motion with notice to the attorneys for the defendants, apply for sanctions or other relief that may be appropriate.

4. Unless this Court grants an extension, the injunction will expire without further action of this Court ten years from the date of its entry, or if timely appealed, ten years after the final order of the highest-level appellate court.

SO ORDERED.
