ORDER

Before the Court are the Department of Justice, Antitrust Division’s (“DOJ”) Motion to Stay, (doc. 62 ), and Motion for Leave to File Affidavit Ex Parte and Under Seal, (doc. 63). DOJ moves to extend the limited stay of the depositions of Douglas Goldberg, Michael Lena, and William Blount until after December 1, 2011. After reviewing the parties respective paper submissions and considering their arguments in the telephonic conference held on Tuesday, May 17, 2011, the court GRANTS the DOJ’s motion to extend the limited stay of the depositions of Goldberg, Lena, and Blount and MOOTS the motion to file Paul Gallagher’s affidavit ex parte and under seal. The court also GRANTS Defendant MacFaddin’s motion to depose Larry Langford, (doc. 49), but STAYS the taking of that deposition until the resolution of Langford's appeal in USA v. Langford, 7:08-cr-00245-LSC-PWG, in light of Langford's representation that he intends to assert his Fifth Amendment rights, (doc. 67).

The motions to stay the remaining discovery, including depositions of the Defendants, are DENIED. The court will, however, give the parties an opportunity to subsequently seek to reopen any deposition in which the deponent invoked his or her Fifth Amendment rights to a particular topic, including prior depositions of Kisti Shah and Gary White. Finally, the court's previous ORDER that no party may seek through any form of discovery any information about the existing or future criminal prosecutions, or the DOJ's criminal investigation remains. See doc. 58.

DONE this 17th day of May, 2011.
