MOTION FOR ENTRY OF ORDER: (1) CONSOLIDATING RELATED ACTIONS; (2) SETTING CERTAIN PRETRIAL PROCEDURES; AND (3) APPOINTING IRWIN B. LEVIN AS PLAINTIFFS' LEAD COUNSEL

Plaintiffs in the actions identified below, by and through their undersigned counsel, respectfully move this Court to enter their proposed Pretrial Order No. 1, consolidating these cases with related cases pending before this Court, and appointing Irwin B. Levin, the local lawyer who filed the first of these related cases, as the single lead counsel responsible for the prosecution of this litigation. In support thereof, plaintiffs represent as follows:

1. The above-captioned actions and related actions that are pending in this Court have been filed against Irving Materials, Inc., and other co-conspirators for violations of the federal antitrust laws in the manufacture and sale of ready-mixed concrete.¹ The Complaints all allege violations of §1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. §§15, 16, and contain substantially similar allegations that the defendant conspired to fix, raise, maintain, or stabilize prices for ready-mixed concrete sold in the United States and conspired with others to allocate markets for ready-mixed concrete sold in the United States.

2. All of the parties agree that these Actions should be consolidated for pre-trial purposes pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 42(a) because they all involve substantially similar issues of law and fact. On August 17, 2005, Plaintiffs in certain actions filed a Motion to Consolidate and For Entry of Case Management Order No. 1, seeking, among other things, the consolidation of these Actions, the appointment of a lead counsel from the State of Louisiana, and designation of an executive committee composed of lawyers drawn from firms in the State of Washington, the State of Maine, and the State of Pennsylvania. On August 18, 2005, a plaintiff in another action filed a motion seeking consolidation and the appointment of a sole lead counsel from the State of Pennsylvania. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully urge the Court to enter their proposed Pretrial
