05/17/2013	256	MANDATE of USCA (Certified Copy) as to 137 Notice of Appeal, filed by Bob Kohn USCA Case Number 12-4017. Appellee United States of America moves to dismiss for lack of standing Appellants appeal from the district courts denial of his motion to intervene under Rule 24(b) of the Federal Rules of CivilProcedure. Upon due consideration, it is hereby ORDERED that the motion, construed as also requesting summary affirmance of the district courts judgment, is GRANTED. We may review a district court order denying permissive intervention as a final order. Ionian Shipping Co. v. British Law Ins. Co., 426 F.2d 186, 189 (2d Cir. 1970). However, assuming arguendo that Appellant hasstanding to appeal the denial of his motion to intervene, the district court did not abuse its discretion in denying permissive intervention as Appellant did not satisfy the requirements of Rule 24(b). See H.L. Hayden Co. of N.Y., Inc. v. Siemens Med. Sys., Inc., 797 F.2d 85, 89 (2d Cir. 1986) (stating thatpermissive intervention pursuant to Rule 24(b) is discretionary with the trial court). 05/17/2013	257	ORDER granting 210 Motion for Entry of Judgment under Rule 54(b). There is no need for a hearing prior to making a determination on the Penguin Final Judgment. The September 5 Opinion comprehensively addresses the arguments raised by the Penguin Comments and Kohn's amicus curiae filing in opposition to the Penguin Final Judgment. The Court thus adopts by reference the reasoning of the September 5 Opinion and its relevant holdings, and finds that entry of final judgment as to Penguin is in the public interest. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the Government's April 18, 2013 motion for entry of the proposed Penguin Final Judgment is granted. (Signed by Judge Denise L. Cote on 5/17/2013) (lmb) (Entered: 05/20/2013)

ECF #217. In its reply earlier today (ECF #225), the Government made no objection to my request for such a hearing. It is hereby ORDERED that any objection to the terms of the above proposed amendment to the October 16, 2013 Order appointing Michael Bromwich as Monitor is due by November 27, 2013. 12/02/2013	413	ORDER. On September 5, 2013, a permanent injunction was entered in these two actions (Injunction). Among other things, the Injunction created the position of an External Compliance Monitor (Monitor) with the duties described in Section VI of the Injunction. The Injunction permitted Apple to object to any candidate for the Monitorship proposed by the Department of Justice and the Plaintiff States and required Apple to reimburse the candidates for reasonable expenses incurred by the candidates in connection with travel undertaken for interviews of the candidates by the United States and the Court. Through an Order of October 16, the Court advised the parties that it had interviewed the two candidates whose names had been submitted by the Department of Justice and the Plaintiff States, and had appointed Michael Bromwich as the Monitor, to be assisted by Bernard Nigro. Since the issuance of the Order of October 16, neither Apple, the Monitor, nor the Department of Justice and Plaintiff States have informed the Court about the work of the Monitor or of any problems associated with that work. There has been no ex parte communication between the Court and the Monitor or between the Court and any of the parties about these issues. In an Order of November 20, the parties were asked to submit any objection by November 27 to amendments to the Injunction described in the November 20 Order. In a submission of November 27 Apple objects to that provision in the November 20 Order that would allow the Monitor to provide the Court with ex parte oral briefings about the monitorship. Apple having objected, the Court will not receive ex parte briefings or reports from the Monitor about his work. Through its November 27 submission, Apple offers other objections as well. It objects to the Monitors performance of his duties to date and to his fee structure for this undertaking. These are matters of which neither the parties nor the Monitor had previously advised the Court. In Section VI.H., the Injunction describes the process through which Apple shall make any objections to the actions by the Monitor. Objections are to be conveyed in writing to the United States and the Plaintiff States within ten calendar days after the action giving rise to the objection. Section VI.I. of the Injunction provides that the Monitor shall serve on such terms and conditions as the United States, after consultation with the Plaintiff States, approves. Any compensation shall be on reasonable and customary terms. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that there shall be no ex parte communication by the Monitor with the Court regarding the performance of his duties as Monitor. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Apple shall follow the procedure created by Section VI.H. if it has any objections regarding the Monitor which it is unable to resolve through discussions with the Monitor. To the extent it has any objections about the Monitors fee structure, Apple shall use the procedure created by Section VI.H. to address that issue as well.IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, in the event timely objection is made by Apple to the Department of Justice and the Plaintiff States, and the parties are unable to resolve the issue, any party may seek a conference with the Court through a letter no longer than two pages. The Court will promptly schedule a conference to give all parties, and if appropriate the Monitor, an opportunity to be heard on the matter. (Signed by Judge Denise L. Cote on 12/2/2013) (gr) (Entered: 12/02/2013)

12/13/2013	416	ORDER....On December 13, Apple filed a motion (December 13 Motion) by order to show cause for a stay of the Injunction pending appeal to the Second Circuit. DOJ submitted a responsive letter that same day. Also on December 13, the Court held a telephone conference on the record with Apple, DOJ, and the Plaintiff States present, in order to schedule briefing on Apples Motion. In that conference, the Court reminded the parties that the Injunction had not been modified, and stated that the term ex parte, as used in the Courts proposal with respect to communications between the Monitor and Apple did not mean un-counseled, but rather carried the ordinary meaning of ex parte, i.e., that DOJ and/or the Plaintiff States need not be present during any communication between the Monitor and Apple, and that Apple need not be present for any communication between Monitor and DOJ and/or the Plaintiff States. Apple was given the opportunity to amend its motion in light of these statements. It declined to do so. Accordingly, it is herebyORDERED that DOJ and the Plaintiff States opposition to Apples December 13 Motion is due by December 30, 2013. Apples reply, if any, is due by January 7, 2014. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that at the time any pleading is served, the party submitting the pleading shall supply Chambers with two (2) courtesy copies of all motion papers by mailing or delivering them to the United States Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York. 02/19/2014	444	ORDER:On February 10, 2014, the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit denied Apples appeal from this Courts rejection of its motion to stay the monitorship. By letter of February 18, the Monitor advises the Court that he wrote to Apple on February 11 on various topics, and that Apples counsel has proposed a meeting during the week of March 3. The Monitor asks that the Court schedule periodic status conferences. It is hereby ORDERED that Apple shall provide to the Monitor on a rolling basis, with final production being made no later than February 26, the documents the Monitor has requested, including those the Monitor requested in October, as well as any additional documents that Apple wishes the Monitor to review. 		shall discuss the issue with the DOJ. If those discussions are not successful in resolving the dispute, the parties and/or Monitor should promptly submit the issue to the Court in a letter no longer than two pages.
