DENISE COTE, District Judge:

On October 5, 2015, the Monitor submitted to the Court and the parties in this matter his fourth report. The Monitor provided as well a Non-Confidential Version of that report with his proposed redactions for information Apple has designated as confidential and/or proprietary. Pursuant to the Final Judgment, the Monitor's appointment expires after Apple has completed two years of the annual training required by the Judgment, although on application of the United States or any Plaintiff State, or sua sponte, the appointment may be extended by one or more one-year periods. The Monitor's letter reflects an understanding that his appointment expires on October 16, 2015 unless extended. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the parties shall confer with each other and the Monitor and provide to the Court by October 9, 2015, any requests for further redactions beyond those proposed in the Monitor's October 5 Non-Confidential Version.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties shall confer regarding the extension of the Monitorship and provide by October 12, 2015 their joint or several positions in writing on whether the Monitorship should be extended.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a conference will be held on October 15, 2015, at 2:30 p.m. to address whether the Monitorship should expire as of that date or be extended for some period thereafter. The Monitor shall attend the conference.

SO ORDERED:

Dated: New York, New York
October 5, 2015
