

Hertz Files for Antitrust Approval of Its Agreement to Acquire Dollar Thrifty Group

PARK RIDGE, NJ, May 14, 2010 (MARKETWIRE via COMTEX) --Hertz Global Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: HTZ) ("Hertz") announced today that it and Dollar Thrifty Automotive Group, Inc. ("Dollar Thrifty") each filed a Notification and Report Form with the federal antitrust authorities under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, relating to Hertz's previously disclosed definitive agreement to acquire Dollar Thrifty.

"We look forward to obtaining regulatory clearance of the transaction," said Hertz CEO Mark Frissora. "The Dollar and Thrifty value brands complement our premium Hertz brand, and the acquisition will allow us to reach a new and substantial segment of leisure travelers renting at U.S. airports. In addition, the acquisition will enable significant synergies to make Dollar and Thrifty stronger competitors in this market segment, which is dominated primarily by Enterprise/Alamo/National and Avis Budget, both companies having higher U.S. airport market shares than Hertz."

Hertz expects its acquisition to face fewer antitrust hurdles than would a potential rival bid by Avis Budget Group ("Avis Budget"). Avis Budget already operates a significant value brand, Budget Rent A Car, which competes directly against Dollar Thrifty. Hertz, by contrast, does not have a national value brand. "Budget and Dollar Thrifty target the same price-conscious consumers, and Hertz does not have a significant presence in that space today," added Frissora.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This communication contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on the current expectations and beliefs of Hertz and are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact are statements that could be deemed forward-looking statements. Risks, uncertainties and assumptions include the possibility that (1) the companies may be unable to obtain stockholder or regulatory approvals required for the merger or may be required to accept conditions that could reduce the anticipated benefits of the merger as a condition to obtaining regulatory approvals; (2) the length of time necessary to consummate the proposed merger may be longer than anticipated; (3) problems may arise in successfully integrating the businesses of the two companies; (4) the proposed merger may involve unexpected costs; (5) the businesses may suffer as a result of uncertainty surrounding the proposed merger; and (6) the industry may be subject to future risks that are described in SEC reports filed by Hertz and Dollar Thrifty. Because forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, actual results and events may differ materially from results and events currently expected by Hertz and Dollar Thrifty. Hertz and Dollar Thrifty assume no obligation and expressly disclaim any duty to update the information contained herein except as required by law.
