

Hertz Discloses Dollar Thrifty Stockholder Strategy

PARK RIDGE, NJ, Sep 29, 2010 (MARKETWIRE via COMTEX) --

Hertz Global Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: HTZ) ("Hertz") today issued a statement detailing the specific steps it will take in the event Dollar Thrifty stockholders vote "No" on the Hertz-Dollar Thrifty merger agreement on September 30, 2010. Mark P. Frissora, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, said, "While answering Dollar Thrifty stockholder questions today, I confirmed four immediate steps Hertz will take if stockholders vote 'No' on our merger agreement:

1. Immediately terminate the merger agreement, taking the $50 offer permanently off the table;
2. End all efforts to acquire Dollar Thrifty;
3. Stop the process of selling Advantage, our deep-value leisure brand;
4. Withdraw our antitrust application from the Federal Trade Commission."

Additionally, Mr. Frissora has told Dollar Thrifty investors, "we arrived at our best and final $50 offer through an open, thoughtful and competitive negotiation and we cannot be held hostage in an open-ended process. We are confident of a stand-alone strategy, accelerating the growth of Advantage and building on 4 straight quarters of U.S. airport revenue growth which significantly outpaces our publicly traded competitors," he concluded.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS This communication contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on the current expectations and beliefs of Hertz and are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact are statements that could be deemed forward-looking statements. Risks, uncertainties and assumptions include the possibility that (1) Hertz and Dollar Thrifty may be unable to obtain stockholder or regulatory approvals required for the merger or may be required to accept conditions that could reduce the anticipated benefits of the merger as a condition to obtaining regulatory approvals; (2) the length of time necessary to consummate the proposed merger may be longer than anticipated; (3) problems may arise in successfully integrating the businesses of Hertz and Dollar Thrifty; (4) the proposed merger may involve unexpected costs; (5) the businesses may suffer as a result of uncertainty surrounding the proposed merger; and (6) the industry may be subject to future risks that are described in SEC reports filed by Hertz. Because forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, actual results and events may differ materially from results and events currently expected by Hertz. Hertz assumes no obligation and expressly disclaims any duty to update the information contained herein except as required by law.
