This case is hereby designated for inclusion in the Pilot Project Regarding Case Management Techniques for Complex Civil Cases in the Southern District of New York (the Pilot Project), unless the judge to whom this case is assigned determines otherwise. 02/19/2013	4	ORDER: The Court is in receipt of a letter dated February 15, 2013 seeking an initial conference in United States v. Twin America LLC et al., 12 Civ. 8989. The Court questions whether a conference should be held solely in 12 Civ. 8989 if parties to the other above- captioned cases will be seeking to consolidate their cases with 12 Civ. 8989 for discovery or pretrial purposes. If there were to be such consolidation, it would seem preferable for the Court to hold a single conference in which the attorneys on all cases participated. Accordingly, the parties to 12 Civ. 8989 are directed to confer with each other and then canvas the parties to the other cases to determine the parties' views on the question of consolidation. The results should be transmitted to the Court by letter- preferably a single letter, but multiple letters might be necessary if there are disagreements. If it seems simpler, the Court is prepared to hold a conference on the issue of consolidation on March 8, 2013 at 10:00 a.m. (to be attended by the parties to all cases). If there is universal agreement on consolidation, however, the March 8 conference could instead consist of the Initial Pretrial Conference contemplated by the Pilot Project Regarding Case Management Techniques for Complex Civil Cases. The Court will await the parties' views on consolidation before scheduling any conference. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Gabriel W. Gorenstein on 2/19/2013) (pl) (Entered: 02/19/2013)

02/22/2013	12	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Magistrate Judge Gabriel W. Gorenstein from Andrew A. Ruffino dated 2/20/2013 re: counsel for defendants respectfully request that the court grant the defendants an extension of time to respond to the complaints filed in these cases until 30 days after the plaintiffs collectively file their anticipated consolidated class action complaint. The current response deadline for these individual cases is February 28, which was set in response to a joint request from all parties. ENDORSEMENT: The defendants' time to answer is adjourned sine die pending the Court's consideration of the parties' proposals as to the issue of consolidation per the February 19, 2013 Order. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Gabriel W. Gorenstein on 2/21/2013) (pl) Modified on 2/22/2013 (pl). (Entered: 02/22/2013)
02/27/2013	13	ORDER: A conference will be held in 12 Civ. 8989 on March 8, 2013 at 10:00 a.m. in Courtroom 17-A, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York. The conference will constitute the Initial Pretrial Conference as provided in the Pilot Project Regarding Case Management Techniques for Complex Civil Cases in the Southern District of New York. With respect to the remaining (i.e. non-8989) cases (the "private cases"), the Court believes that before it attempts to address the issue of whether discovery in the private cases should be "coordinated" with the 8989 case, the Court should first determine the question of who will act as lead (or "interim class") counsel for the private cases. The parties' proposed briefing schedule on this topic, as reflected in the February 26, 2013, letter, is adopted (that is, opening briefs due on March 12 2013, and responses due March 22, 2013). A conference at which the Court expects to decide the question of the appointment of lead (or "interim class") counsel will be held on March 28, 2013 at 4:00p.m. in Courtroom 17-A, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York. The private plaintiffs are not required to attend the March 8 conference. Nonetheless, the Court would not prevent a private plaintiff from speaking at the March 8 conference if a request were to be made during the course of the conference to do so. 10/23/2013	65	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Magistrate Judge Gabriel W. Gorenstein from William Christopher Carmody dated 10/22/2013 re: I write as counsel for plaintiff Natasha Bhandari to request a pre-motion conference regarding a motion to amend the current complaint in this matter. ENDORSEMENT: The pre-motion conference

		requirement is waived. Please check with defendants to see if they will simply stipulate to the filing of the proposed amended pleading. The Court notes that the consideration of the "futility" of a proposed amendment to a pleading is addressed to a court's "discretion," Grace v. Rosenstock , 228 F.3d 40, 53 (2d Cir. 2000), and if this is the only basis defendants have for opposing the amendment, it would be best to stipulate to its filing. By doing so, defendants will preserve any arguments about the merits of the claims for any future motion that addresses the merits. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Gabriel W. Any member of the Settlement Class who does not timely seek exclusion from the Class and who wishes to object to the terms of the relevant Proposed Settlement must do so in writing, must mail or deliver copies of such objection to Counsel for the Settling Parties and the Clerk of the Court (by September 5, 2014), which is 45 days prior to the final fairness hearing ("objection deadline"), and must otherwise comply with the requirements set forth in the Notice.
