| 01/25/2016 | | MINUTE ORDER. The 110 Memorandum and Opinion and related order were designated as under seal, but inadvertently filed on the public docket. However, the Court is not aware of any confidential information that was published in the opinion. The parties may inform the Court of any information they believe should be redacted no later than 4:00 p.m. Tuesday January 26, 2016. By the same time, the parties shall file any objection to the relevant motion, response an reply being published on the public docket. Going forward, filings shall not be made under seal absent compelling reasons consistent with D.C. Circuit precedent Signed by Judge Emmet G. Sullivan on January 25, 2016. (lcegs4) (Entered: 01/25/2016) |
| 01/25/2016 | | MINUTE ORDER. For substantially the same reasons advanced by Defendants in their response brief, the American Automobile Association's 91 objection to the Protective Order is DENIED. Signed by Judge Emmet G. Sullivan on January 25, 2016. (lcegs4) (Entered: 01/25/2016) |
| 01/25/2016 | | MINUTE ORDER granting 117 Sealed Motion for Leave to File Document Under Seal. Signed by Judge Emmet G. Sullivan on January 25, 2016. (lcegs4) Modified event title on 1/26/2016 (znmw). (Entered: 01/25/2016) |
| 01/25/2016 | | MINUTE ORDER denying 99 John Doe's Motion to Modify the Protective Order. John Doe's concerns about commercial retaliation are speculative. Univ. of Mass. v. Roslin Inst., 437 F. Supp. 2d 57, 60 (D.D.C. 2006)("[G]ood cause [for a protective order] is only established when the movant demonstrates that disclosure would cause a clearly defined and serious injury.") Moreover, current provisions of the Protective Order include significant penalties for misuse of confidential information. See Docket No. 59. Defendants' need to prepare for trial under severe time constraints outweighs the proffered harm cited by John Doe. See e.g. Fed. Trade Comm'n v. Sysco Corp., 83 F. Supp. 3d 271, 274 (D.D.C. 2015). Signed by Judge Emmet G. Sullivan on January 25, 2016. (lcegs4) (Entered: 01/25/2016) |
| 01/25/2016 | 118 | SEALED REPLY TO OPPOSITION filed by JOHN DOE re 99 SEALED MOTION filed by JOHN DOE. (This document is SEALED and only available to authorized persons.) (znmw) (Entered: 01/26/2016) |
| 01/26/2016 | | MINUTE ORDER granting in part and denying in part Lowe's 94 97 Motion to Modify the Protective Order. First, Lowe's seeks to extend the ban on in-house counsel from giving competitive decision making advice from July 2017 to December 2017. In light of the current provisions of the protective order that prohibit and penalize misuse of information by in-house counsel, and because Lowe's has not articulated a persuasive rationale for this extension of time, this modification is DENIED. Second, Lowe's seeks to explicitly forbid in-house counsel from printing, saving or otherwise storing information accessible to them. Docket No. 94 at 6. The Modified Protective Order states that "in house counsel... may review documents". Docket No. 59 at 5. Review of documents, by definition, does not include printing or saving. As such, any |

| | | |
| | | use of material by designated in-house counsel that extends beyond "review" is forbidden and would constitute a "knowing" violation subject to a fine of up to $250,000.00. See Docket No. 59 at 5. For these reasons, to the extent Lowe's motion seeks to explicitly prohibit in-house counsel from printing or saving material, the motion is DENIED as moot. Finally, Lowe's seeks to require that all consultants sign an agreement acknowledging they are bound by the terms of the Protective Order. Requiring consultants to sign such an agreement acknowledging their obligations under the Protective Order is of little burden to Defendants and helps ensure such consultants are fully apprised of their duties in this case. Lowe's motion to require consultants to sign such an agreement is therefore GRANTED. Defendants shall post signed agreements from their consultants within 10 days of this order being posted. Signed by Judge Emmet G. Sullivan on January 26, 2016. (lcegs4) (Entered: 01/26/2016) |
| 01/27/2016 | | MINUTE ORDER clarifying that any consultants for Defendants or Plaintiffs shall submit to the Court a signed agreement acknowledging that they are bound by the terms of the Protective Order. To protect confidentiality, the parties are permitted to submit the signed agreements directly to chambers. Any such submissions shall be accompanied by a notice on the docket indicating the date and time the submissions were delivered or postmarked. Signed by Judge Emmet G. Sullivan on January 27, 2016. | 02/23/2016 | | MINUTE ORDER denying Defendants' Motions to Compel against non-parties Boston Childrens Hospital and New York-Presbyterian Healthcare System. Docket Nos. 156 and 166. Rule 45 governs issuance and compliance with subpoenas issued to non-parties in civil litigation. Fed. R. Civ. P. 45. The rule defines the issuing court as the court where the action is pending. Fed. R. Civ. P. 45 (a)(2). Subpoenas under Rule 45 must be issued from the issuing Court. Id. Compliance under Rule 45 for subpoenaed depositions or document production is limited to 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person. Fed. R. Civ. P. |

|------------|---------------------|---|
| | | 45 (c)(1)-(2). Motions to compel compliance with such subpoenas must be filed in the district where compliance is required. Fed. R. Civ. P. 45 (d)(2)(B)(i); see e.g. HT S.R.L v. Velasco, 15-MC-00177 (D.MD), 2015 WL 5120980, at*3 (D.D.C. August 28, 2015) (noting that a motion to compel compliance with a subpoena must be filed in the court for the district where compliance is required.); Google, Inc. v. Digital Citizens All., MC 15-00707 JEB/DAR, 2015 WL 4930979, at *2 (D.D.C. July 31, 2015) (noting that Rule 45, as amended in 2013, provides for the transfer for subpoena related motions from the court where compliance is required to the court where the underlying action is pending where the person subject to the subpoena consents or if the court finds exceptional circumstances.). Here, Defendants moved to compel compliance of Boston Childrens Hospital and New York-Presbyterian Healthcare System with subpoenas issued under Rule 45 in this Court, the issuing Court, where the underlying action is pending. Docket Nos. 156 and 166. The Court is aware of no authority permitting it to rule on the merits of the motions to compel, nor have Defendants cited any. Defs. Reply, Docket No. 172 at 1-2. As such, Defendants Motions to Compel against non-parties Boston Childrens Hospital and New York-Presbyterian Healthcare System are DENIED without prejudice to refileing in the appropriate jurisdiction. The Court notes that although the motions were filed under seal, this order is posted on the public docket because no information contained herein is confidential or otherwise subject to being filed under seal.(lcegs4) (Entered: 02/23/2016) |

| 02/26/2016 | | MINUTE ORDER denying Defendants Motion to Compel against Plaintiff, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC). Defendants argue that the FTC has failed to properly respond to its second Request for Production (RFP). Docket No. 165. For substantially the same reasons articulated by the FTC in its response brief, the Court concludes that the FTC has sufficiently complied with Defendants discovery requests. See generally, Docket No. 162. First, Defendants seek more information about the small supplier referenced by the FTC at an administrative hearing, from whom the FTC purchases some office supplies. Id. at 6-7. As context, the FTC explains that government agencies are required to purchase certain items from small, disadvantaged businesses. Id. at 7. Moreover, the FTC claims that no documents exist regarding the statement about purchases from a small supplier. Id. The Court cannot order production of documents that do not exist. Even if additional documents did exist, the Court is confident that the burden of production outweighs the likely benefit of the information sought. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). Defendants also seek additional information explaining the data already produced by the FTC about its purchase of office supplies. Id. at 7-8. The FTC has produced data regarding all purchases of office supplies by purchase order, which includes the amount, the vendor, and more. Id. at 5. |

| | | The FTC also produced data for its purchases of consumable office supplies through purchase cards. Id. at 6. Not satisfied with this information, Defendants seek information about office supply purchases from the FTCs regional offices. Docket No. 165 at 11. The FTC insists that it does not maintain information about its regional office purchases in the manner requested by Defendants. Docket No. 162 at 7. Under Rule 34, the FTC is only required to produce documents that it maintains in the ordinary course of business. Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(b)(2)(E)(i). For all of these reasons, the FTCs response to Defendants' second RFP is sufficient, and Defendants' Motion to Compel is DENIED. Signed by Judge Emmet G. Sullivan on February 26, 2016. | 03/14/2016 | | MINUTE ORDER. On Monday, March, 14, 2016, Defendants and third-party Amazon sought clarification about whether the out-of-time deposition granted to Defendants was intended to be a 30(b)(6) witness or an individual percipient witness. See Order, Docket No. 182. After review of the parties' letters, the Court GRANTS Defendants' request that the individual deposed be prepared as a 30(b)(6) witness. The Court's Order specifies that the deposition shall be limited to new information learned by Defendants as a consequence of its Motion to Compel. To the extent that the new information disclosed as a result of Defendants' Motion requires knowledge of a corporate designee, it is only fair and in the interests of justice that the out-of-time deposition be a 30(b)(6) designee. The deposition shall take place no later than March 17, 2016 at 9:00 Pacific Time. The parties are hereby ordered to file the letters submitted to the Court for its review on the docket forthwith. | 03/14/2016 | | MINUTE ORDER. In light of the parties differing views on how to most efficiently resolve any potential evidentiary disputes to exhibits, including disputes regarding portions of exhibits that should be designated as confidential, the Court concludes that the following procedure is consistent with the fair administration of justice and serves the interests of judicial economy: (1) no later than Tuesday, March 15, 2016 at 7:00 p.m., the parties shall simultaneously disclose the witnesses they plan to call during the course of trial, the exhibits they plan to offer through each witness, and a brief statement of the evidentiary basis for each exhibit; (2) no later than Thursday, March 17, 2016 at 9:00 a.m., the parties shall file detailed objections, including relevant points and authorities of law, and proposed redactions to the exhibits identified; (3) no later than Friday, March 18, 2016 at 3:00 p.m., replies to any objections and proposed redactions shall be filed. This process will allow the Court to rule on all significant evidentiary issues before the start of trial. Any objections to this proposal shall be filed no later than 9:00 a.m. Tuesday, March 15, 2016. The Court will consider any alternative proposal to which the parties stipulate. See e.g. Case No. 15-1039, Docket No. 276. Any proposed stipulation must also be filed by Friday, March 18, 2016 at 3:00 p.m. Signed by Judge Emmet G. Sullivan on March 14, 2016. | 03/27/2016 | | MINUTE ORDER. In order to efficiently resolve Defendants' Motion to Unseal portions of Mr. Wilson's March 23, 2016 testimony, the Court sent lead counsel for the parties and non-party Amazon a transcript that indicates the Court's view about what portions of Mr. Wilson's testimony should be sealed and what portions should be public. The Court agrees with Amazon that discussion of certain products not yet released should remain confidential. However, all items discussed by Mr. Wilson during his presentation in Baltimore, including invoicing capabilities, should be public as those topics have already been discussed in a public forum. The parties are hereby ordered to meet and confer based on the transcript received from the Court, with the goal of reaching further agreement on the content that should be sealed in accordance with the Hubbard factors. The parties shall file a joint status report indicating further agreement no later than 5:00 p.m. Monday, March 28, 2016. If no further agreement can be reached, the parties shall be prepared to make specific arguments based on the transcript received from the Court. Signed by Judge Emmet G. Sullivan on March 27, 2016.
