07/26/2011	207	ORAL ORDER: Having reviewed the parties' joint submission regarding scheduling (D.I. 205), IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the following schedule shall govern further proceedings in this matter: (i) "NY Proposed Deadline" for completion of document production (D.I. 205 at 2) is adopted; (ii) Intel's "proposal" (D.I. 205 at 5) paragraphs 3-9 is adopted; (iii) the close of expert discovery is moved to October 7, 2011; and (iv) the case dispositive motion deadline is moved to October 14, 2011. The Court adopts these modifications to the existing schedule as reasonable in light of the recent disputes and rulings relating to representative discovery from New York entities. The Court finds New York's proposed dates for completion of document production to be reasonable and also agrees with Intel that Intel may take additional or supplemental Rule 30(b)(6) depositions of the New

		York entities that will be producing further documents if Intel believes, in good faith, based on the new document productions, further depositions are required. By extending slightly the deadlines for expert discovery and filing of case dispositive motions, the Court ensures that New York will "cure its production deficiencies within a reasonable time frame that does not prejudice Intel or undermine other case deadlines" (D.I. 205 at 4). IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that, no later than July 28, 2011, the parties shall jointly submit a proposed form of order setting out the schedule for the remainder of this matter consistent with the rulings contained in this oral order. ORDERED by Judge Leonard P. Stark on 7/26/11. (ntl) (Entered: 07/26/2011)
