AND REMINGTON RAND BUSINESS
SERVICE, INC.,

Defendants.

In Equity

No. 66-215

FINAL ORDER ON MANDATE

Comes now the United States of America, Petitioner herein, by Lamar Hardy, Esq., its attorney for this district, and the mandate of the Supreme Court of the United States, duly authenticated under the seal of said Supreme Court of the United States and certified by the Clerk thereof, having been filed in this Court on May 26, 1936, whereby it appears that, at the October Term, 1935, of said Supreme Court of the United States, on the 27th day of April, 1936, upon the appeal by the defendant, International Business Machines Corporation, from the decree of this Court dated and entered December 26, 1935, granting a permanent injunction against said defendant, said decree was duly affirmed; it is hereby

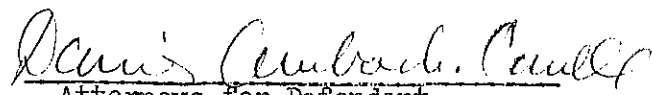

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the order of this Court herein dated and entered December 26, 1935, which provides that the operation of paragraph 4 of said decree in all respects be stayed for a period of thirty (30) days after the date of its entry for the purpose of allowing the defendants, International Business Machines Corporation and The Tabulating Machine Company, to perfect their appeal; and, in the event that such appeal should be perfected within 30 days and prosecuted with reasonable diligence, that the operation of such provisions be further stayed during the prosecution of said appeal and until the entry of a final order on mandate herein, be and the same is hereby set aside and vacated, and that paragraph 4 of said decree against the defendant, International Business Machines Corporation, entered herein December 26, 1935, as well as all other provisions thereof, be and the same are in full force and effect from and after the date of the entry of this final order on mandate herein.

Dated New York, ^{August 6th} ~~July~~, 1936.

United States District Judge

We hereby consent to the entry of the foregoing order.
