TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

AND NOW, this ____ day of May, 2009, upon consideration of Feesers, Inc.'s Motion for an Order of Contempt and Temporary and Permanent Injunctive Relief, which was made with notice to defendants who had an opportunity to be heard, the accompanying memorandum of law and supporting declarations of Eamon O’Kelly and John Tighe, and after a hearing held on the Motion on May ____, 2009, the Court hereby finds that it has been presented with sufficient evidence that plaintiff will suffer immediate and irreparable injury for which there is no adequate remedy at law if a temporary restraining order is not granted, and accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that Michael Foods shall comply with the terms of this Court’s Order, dated April 27, 2009, by accepting and filling all of Feesers’ purchase orders in the ordinary course of business at a lawful and non-discriminatory price until this Court renders a ruling on Feesers’ motion for contempt.

On this ____ day of May, 2009,

Feesers’s Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order is GRANTED.
