Paper Due Dates for the Two- and Three-Credit Courses

NB: These dates are deadlines. I read drafts and give comments in the order I receive the papers. Therefore, it pays to be early.

Wednesday, January 28	Need approval of the question to be addressed on or before this date
Wednesday, February 4	First draft of the introduction; identify key cases and key articles/blog posts Additional requirement for the 3-credit course: Outline of the paper
Wednesday, February 25	Second draft of the introduction; first draft of the section providing motivation and background for the question to be addressed Additional requirement for the 3-credit course: Second draft of the outline of the paper
Wednesday, April 1	Complete first draft due
Tuesday, May 5	All final drafts are due

You should expect adjustments in the schedule as we go through the course. I will email a roadmap to the required reading before each future class. The required reading will always be on Canvas and AppliedAntitrust.com, but the roadmap will provide you with some guidance as to how the reading will fit together with the class. I will try to send the email at least five or six days before each class.
