20 The government has proposed a preliminary instruction on economic gain under the 21 Alternative Fines statute. . The defendant corporations have opposed any instruction on 22 economic gain at this time, and also have proposed an alternative to the government's version.
23 The economic gains evidence is inadmissible against the individual defendants, as the 24 government has not invoked the Alternative Fines provision as to them. In the event that the 25 Court does preinstruct on the economic gains evidence, defendant Hsiung requests the bolded 26 modification to the corporations' proposed instruction.
