ORDER

The United States of America (“the government”) has represented that unlimited discovery in this matter will have an adverse effect on an on-going grand jury investigation, and has filed a motion requesting that discovery in this matter be limited in order to protect the integrity of that investigation.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that discovery in this matter be limited to the following classes of documents:

1. Pricing Documents
 - Price Cards & Schedules
 - Published or benchmark prices
 - Discount Policies
 - Historical Price & Discount Records – January 1, 1995 to present.
2. Transactional Documents
 - Actual transaction and customer documents
 - Records and summaries of transactions
 - Historical transactional documents – January 1, 1995 to present.
3. Profit & Loss Documents
 - Quarterly, or monthly P&L’s
 - Backup Schedules and documents
 - P&L’s for specific products/locations
 - Historical P&L documents – January 1, 1995 to present.
4. Financial Statements
 - Current and historical financial statements
 - Third-party financial statements provided to lenders, suppliers, etc.

Discovery will be limited to the above categories of documents during the pendency of the grand jury's investigation and resulting criminal proceedings, or until further order of this Court.
