07/25/2025	188	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Jeffrey I Cummings: Telephonic motion hearing held on 7/25/25. For the reasons stated on the record, the Opposed Motion by Defendant Surmodics, Inc. to Compel Philips Healthcare to comply with Subpoena 111 is granted in part, and denied in part. By August 11, 2025, Philips is ordered to produce documents and information sufficient to show the sales revenue, type of lubricious coating used, and Philips' evaluation of which lubricious coatings it considered for the twelve devices listed in Exhibit 3 to Surmodics' motion [111-3 at 3] and the four additional devices identified by Surmodics on the record (sixteen devices

		total) for January 1, 2021 to the present. For clarity, responsive information must be produced for devices from this narrowed list of sixteen, which have a hydrophilic coating or a mix of hydrophilic and non-hydrophilic coatings. No information need be produced for the specified devices, if any, that do not utilize hydrophilic coatings. Counsel for Surmodics and Philips are directed to meet and confer to discuss the most efficient manner to transfer this data from Philips to Surmodics. The parties are further ordered to file a Joint Status Report no later than 8/1/2025 informing the Court of their compliance with the current deadlines, any disputes, and progress with respect to the FTC's review of the potential divestiture. The parties should further indicate whether they are mutually interested in participating in a settlement conference with the assigned Magistrate Judge or this Court. 08/16/2025	355	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Jeffrey I Cummings: Pursuant to the Court's 8/14/25 Order, the FTC has identified four specific concerns with the proposed divestiture of Biocoat that render it an insufficient remedy in the agency's view. Defendants have reviewed the FTC's submissions and state that they are still interested in pursuing a mediation. To this end, defendants are invited to submit to the FTC and the Court's settlement correspondence mailbox (Settlement_Correspondence_Cummings@ilnd.uscourts.gov) by the close of business on 8/18/25, their proposal to address and allay each of the FTC's concerns. Plaintiffs are instructed to review defendants' proposal and the parties should be prepared to discuss at the 8/19/25 pre-hearing conference the possibility of an expedited mediation prior to the preliminary injunction hearing. 08/18/2025	361	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Jeffrey I Cummings: The Court has reviewed plaintiffs' unopposed motion to seal their reply in support of their motion for a preliminary injunction 337 and finds, within its discretion, that good cause exists to file the opposition and its exhibits, which contain sensitive business information, under seal at this time. See generally Citizens First Nat'l Bank of Princeton v. Cincinnati Ins. Co. , 178 F.3d 943, 944 (7th Cir. 1999); Garcia v. Lowe's Home Centers, LLC , No. 3:22-CV-928-CCB, 2024 WL 4723097, at *1 (N.D.Ind. Nov. 8, 2024) ("When deciding whether to maintain any document under seal, a court must determine whether good cause exists to do so because it is in the public interest to keep court proceedings publicly accessible."). Of course, should this information ultimately prove dispositive to the issues in this case it may be unsealed at a later date. United States v. Foster, 564 F.3d 852, 853 (7th Cir. 2009) ("Information that affects the disposition of litigation belongs in the public record unless a statute or privilege justifies nondisclosure."). For these reasons, plaintiffs' motion to file under seal 337 is granted. Mailed notice (cc,) (Entered: 08/18/2025)

08/18/2025	362	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Jeffrey I Cummings: The Court will allow remote access to the 8/19/25 pre-hearing conference scheduled for 1:00 p.m. The call-in number for the hearing is (855) 244-8681 and the access code is 2311 121 8062. Members of the public and media will be able to call in to listen to the hearing. Persons granted remote access to proceedings are reminded of the general prohibition against photographing, recording, and rebroadcasting of court proceedings. Violation of these prohibitions may result in sanctions, including removal of court issued media credentials, restricted entry to future hearings, denial of entry to future hearings, or any other sanctions deemed necessary by the Court. Remote access to the evidentiary hearing scheduled to begin on 8/21/25 will be addressed during the 8/19/25 pre-hearing conference. Mailed notice (cc,) (Entered: 08/18/2025)

08/19/2025	369	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Jeffrey I Cummings: Pre-hearing status hearing held on 8/19/25. The Court reviewed hearing procedures and guidelines and will issue further guidance on the Court's website in due course. The 8/21/25 preliminary injunction hearing will proceed as scheduled and will continue through 9/2/25 in Courtroom 1219. An overflow room will be available in Courtroom 1843. Pursuant to the policies of the Judicial Conference of the United States, remote access to the hearing will not be available. The hearing will proceed between 9:00 a.m. and approximately 6:00 p.m. each day. The parties are instructed to raise any disputes/ issues with the Court's Courtroom Deputy at 8:45 a.m. prior to the onset of each day's testimony. The Court requests that the parties deliver two copies of each witness exhibit binder at or before 4:00 p.m. on the day before each witness is expected to testify. The parties shall continue to meet and confer regarding outstanding confidentiality issues related to the divestiture agreement and evidentiary objections. Plaintiffs, by agreement, will submit their response to defendants' 8/18/25 settlement proposal to defense counsel and the Court's settlement correspondence mailbox, (Settlement_Correspondence_Cummings@ilnd.uscourts.gov), during the afternoon of 8/20/25. 		(Attachments: # 1 Exhibit Exhibit A)(Masternak, Brian) (Entered: 08/22/2025)

08/22/2025	392	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Jeffrey I Cummings: For the reasons set forth in the Court's Order dated 8/20/2025, the Court finds that Stryker has shown good cause to seal certain portions of the deposition of Mr. McCormack because disclosure of this confidential information would harm Stryker while giving its competitors an unfair advantage. Therefore, Stryker's Second Unopposed Motion for in camera treatment 391 is granted. Mailed notice (cc,) (Entered: 08/22/2025)
