07/05/2024	115	ORDER. The Court is in receipt of Cole Haan LLC's letter dated July 5, 2024. ECF No. 113. Cole Haan requests that the Court treat Tapestry, Inc.'s letter-motion (ECF No. 110) as a request for a pre-motion conference rather than as a motion to compel. Given the expedited nature of the preliminary injunction process, the Court generally treats letter motions such as this as motions to compel but will discuss that further at the July 9 conference. Should Cole Haan need additional time and space to respond to the motion, Cole Haan is permitted to file an additional letter response of up to 3 pages, no later than July 8, 2024 at 3:00 p.m. (HEREBY ORDERED by Judge Jennifer L. Rochon) (Text Only Order) (mkp) (Entered: 07/05/2024)

09/03/2024	303	ORDER denying 195 Letter Motion for Conference. Defendants' request for a conference is DENIED. No motions in limine to exclude evidence were filed by Defendants. The Court will hold a video case management conference on September 6, 2024 to discuss the parties' joint September 4, 2024 submission and the Daubert motions. At that time, the Court can discuss with the parties the matters raised in Defendants' August 28, 2024 letter more fully. But in order to provide guidance now for purposes of hearing preparation, the Court will not exclude all deposition and IH transcripts that are not presented at the hearing. The Courts decision to forego a bench trial practice of direct examination of witnesses by affidavits pursuant to the Court's Individual Rule 5.C.iv (and live cross) is inconsequential. Out of court sworn testimony such as depositions may be submitted through designations and counter-designations, given that they are likely admissible under Federal Rule of Evidence 801(d)(2) and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 32. In any event, the Court may receive hearsay during a preliminary injunction hearing. See Mullins v. City of New York, 626 F.3d 47, 51-52 (2d Cir. 2010). And Defendants either cross examined the witnesses or had the opportunity to do so. With respect to documents, in its August 30, 2024 letter, the FTC has represented that it does not intend to move in all documents on its exhibit list. The Court will address any document issues as they are presented and certainly sophisticated counsel here understands that documents that are presented during the hearing, with context, will be more persuasive. The Court does not find persuasive the authority cited by Defendants in its August 28 letter, especially since much of it does not deal with preliminary injunction hearings, supports the uncontroverted notion that a live PI hearing be held (which will commence on September 9), or addresses the constitutionality of the FTC's administrative proceedings (which is not an issue that has been raised in this case). The September 6, 2024 video conference shall be held at 10 am EST via Microsoft Teams. Counsel shall submit an appearance sheet pursuant to the Court's Individual Rule 2(B) and will receive Microsoft Teams log-in credentials at the email addresses provided. The public listen-only line may be accessed by dialing Toll-Free Number: 877-336-1831 Access Code: 5583342. The Clerk of Court shall close the motion pending at Dkt. 195. SO ORDERED.
