01/29/2013	71	DOCKET ENTRY ORDER setting procedure for counsel to bring discovery disputes to the Courts attention for resolution. Because of the press of its docket, the Court cannot be available on an on call basis to consider and manage discovery disputes in this case. Therefore, excepting disputes that arise during depositions regarding the conduct of a deposition, any discovery dispute for which a party seeks a decision from the court shall be brought to the attention of the Court only on Wednesdays of each week. The Court will then consider the dispute, and set a telephone conference and/or abbreviated briefing schedule (with counsels input) if needed, and will issue a ruling as soon as possible. Counsel shall precisely define the nature of the dispute or disputes. Disputes shall be brought to the Courts attention by emailing law clerk Katie Ball at kate_ball@id.uscourts.gov, with a follow up phone call to chambers at 208-334-9150 if needed. Before counsel bring disputes to the Court for resolution they shall meet and confer in good faith as required by D. Idaho L. Civ. R. 37.1. Signed by Judge Ronald E Bush. ((kb)

11/26/2013	450	DOCKET ENTRY ORDER -- Court staff held a conference with all counsel on November 26, 2013. It was agreed that plaintiffs and defendants will exchange redacted versions of the proposed findings and conclusions by

		December 3, 2013, for comments by each side. Following resolution of the comments, each side will file an interim redacted version of their proposed findings and conclusions on or before December 9, 2013, at 5:00 p.m. The interim redacted version is intended to give the public a quick look at the proposed findings and conclusions. But given the huge amount of material that needs to be reviewed by counsel, and the Thanksgiving holiday, the parties need more time to minimize the redactions. Therefore, the parties and third parties will then work together to minimize the redactions and file final versions soon after the interim version is filed. As guidance, redactions should not include any material that has been made public even if that material is otherwise contained in AEO designated documents. Signed by Judge B. Lynn Winmill. 03/19/2014	485	DOCKET ENTRY ORDER The Court will grant the defense request to bifurcate the attorney fee issues. The parties will address first the issue regarding entitlement to fees. When that briefing is complete, the Court will render a decision on entitlement. If entitlement is found, the parties will then provide briefing on the amount of the fees. The Court will grant reasonable page extensions on the briefing. The Court directs counsel to stipulate to a briefing schedule on the entitlement issues and page limitations for the Court to review and approve. Signed by Judge B. Lynn Winmill. 03/20/2014	486	DOCKET ENTRY ORDER The briefing schedule concerning the entitlement to attorney fees is as follows: (1) March 26, 2014: Private plaintiffs will file an opening memorandum on the issue of entitlement, no more than 20 pages; (2) April 16, 2014: Defendants will file an opposition on the issue of entitlement, no more than 20 pages; and (3) April 30, 2014: Private plaintiffs will file a reply on the issue of entitlement, no more than 10 pages. Once there is a ruling on the entitlement issues, Defendants will confer with counsel for the State (and, if entitlement is found, counsel for the private plaintiffs) to propose a briefing schedule on the amounts sought in the petitions for attorneys fees and
