Gelfand dated 6/28/2019 re: I represent T-Mobile in the above-referenced case, and I am writing on behalf of all Defendants. After last week's scheduling conference, Your Honor ordered the parties to submit a case management plan consistent with an October 7, 2019 trial date. Defendants are pleased to report that the parties have made substantial progress since last week's conference and have reached agreement on nearly every issue. A few items have proved intractable, and we therefore respectfully ask the Court to resolve these remaining disputes. A proposed case management plan setting forth both the areas of agreement and those where there is continued disagreement is attached to this letter. ENDORSEMENT: The parties are directed to address the matter set forth above to Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger to whom this dispute has been referred for resolution, as well as for supervision of remaining pretrial proceedings, establishing case management schedule as necessary, and settlement. Pomerantz dated 6/28/2019 re: Although the parties have agreed on a number of discovery and scheduling issues and are submitting a Joint Case Management Order for the Court's consideration, the following important issues remain unresolved: (1) the impact on the schedule and trial date if Defendants fail to divulge the terms and definitive documents related to any agreement entered into with the Department of Justice (USDOJ) in accordance with the Joint Case Management Order; (2) the length, location and aggregate number of hours of depositions; and (3) Defendants' unwillingness to commit to bringing their employees to trial in New York if Plaintiff States wish to call them as witnesses. ENDORSEMENT: The parties are directed to address the matter set forth above to Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger to whom this dispute has been referred for resolution, as well as for supervision of remaining pretrial proceedings, establishing case management schedule as necessary, and settlement. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Victor Marrero on 6/28/2019) (jca) (Entered: 06/28/2019)

11/05/2019	233	ORDER: 1. No later than the end of business November 5, 2019, Plaintiff State of New York shall produce the Documents to the following defense counsel ("Primary Defense Counsel"): David Gelfand, Steven Sunshine, Joshua Soven, David Meyer, Hallie Levin, and Richard Parker. Primary Defense Counsel may disclose to their respective clients the identity of the entity that is the subject of the Documents and the general nature of the matter at issue. 2. Counsel will meet and confer about redactions to be made to the Documents, such redactions being made to preserve the identity of the source of the documents. By the end of business November 6, 2019, State of New York shall produce Redacted Documents to Primary Defense Counsel. Redacted Documents shall be treated as Highly Confidential under the protective order in this case but with the further restriction that the Redacted Documents may be disclosed only to outside counsel of record. 3. State of New York may provide the Documents to inhouse and outside counsel of record for itself and for the States of California and Texas. 4. By the end of business November 6, 2019, counsel shall meet and confer regarding Defendants' request for production of any notes of telephone conversations between State of New York and the source of the documents. 5. The restrictions on disclosure of the Documents and the information in them as set forth above are without prejudice to future alteration in the degree of protection afforded the Documents by agreement of the parties or order of the Court. 6. 11/12/2019	241	ORDER: This resolves the issue raised at Dkt. 234 regarding the extent to which T-Mobile in-house litigation lawyer Scanlan may attend the deposition of experts and review their deposition transcripts. The question is whether attorney Scanlan may be present during the introduction and questioning concerning Highly Confidential Information ("HCI") for which she has not been cleared for access by parties. The request is DENIED for the reasons as substantially set forth in the non-parties' November 8, 2019 letter (Dkt. 236). Scanlan may be present for the depositions for those portions that do not address HCI for which she has not been cleared by the parties, and Scanlan may review the transcripts of the expert depositions redacted for HCI for which she has not been cleared by the parties. 11/27/2019	300	ORDER: This order addresses Plaintiffs' challenge to certain documents withheld by Deutsche Telekom ("OT") on the basis of attorney-client privilege and/or work product protection. Having reviewed the documents submitted for in camera review, the Court orders as follows: 1. DT shall produce the document at Tab 2 (DT-LIT-00326737 through 41) without redactions except the words between the two dashes on page 39 at 3rd hash sign, 5th and 6th lines, may remain redacted. 2. DT need not produce any of the other documents or redactions submitted in camera. Although further information conceivably could reveal that some or all of the withheld documents and redactions are not subject to privilege/protection (most of the documents do not expressly reflect seeking or providing legal advice or preparation in anticipation of litigation), the additional information provided by OT regarding each document is sufficient to meet its burden for asserting privilege/protection. Collateral discovery on the subject is not warranted given the posture of the case and imminent trial date. 3. Portions of some of the documents are in a foreign language for which no translation appears to have been provided. The Court is satisfied, however, that based on the surrounding material in the documents, the Court's determination would be the same as set forth in paragraph 2 above. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger on 11/27/2019) Copies transmitted to counsel of record via ECF. (mml) (Entered: 11/27/2019)

12/10/2019	339	ORDER: Non-parties Altice, AT&T and Comcast seek to maintain the confidentiality at trial of certain documents. This Court previously has directed the parties and non-parties to pare down any such requests to only those that would pass muster under Second Circuit standards. The parties and non-parties have worked assiduously to do so. The Court already has ruled with respect to Altice documents. Accordingly, this Order addresses the AT&T and Comcast documents, which were discussed during a telephone conference held on December 10, 2019. The Court has reviewed each document at issue. Having considered each document, the parties submissions and arguments, prior proceedings, the presumption of public access to judicial documents, the status of AT&T and Comcast as non-parties, and the Second Circuit standards set forth in Lugosch v. Pyramid Company of Onondaga , 435 F.3d 110 (2d Cir. 2006), the Court determines as further set forth in this Order. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger on 12/10/2019) (mml) (Entered: 12/10/2019)

01/27/2020	400	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Victor Marrero from Manish Dube dated 1/23/2020 re: I am writing to you today to report fundamental 'wrongs' in the inner and departmental working of T-Mobile. I have had the misfortune to be employed for T-Mobile and have witnessed glaring abuses of American fundamentals which is company wide in the Information Technology sector and in its workings. Abuses such as awarding of contract jobs to visa holder companies, which in turn promotes taking jobs away from the American citizens' in the US. Senior leadership (VP levels and up) involved in contract award scams. Allegations of Senior leadership involved in female visa worker sexual assault incidents. (The visa workers are not able to come forward for fear of losing their American dream). The blatant hiring of immigrant friends and friends of immigrant coworkers with out basic checks and balances promoting the workplace to be reverse racist. Targeting of African -American's in the Information Technology organization using subversive means. Employees who complained about such wrongdoings were either quieted with a pay package or were terminated citing edge case rule/s. T-Mobile a company who's fundamentals' are so morally wrong could never do any long term good for the greatest Nation on this earth; THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. Strengthening a company with such values will be synonymous to feeding a future curse. For the above reasons and many more such reasons that I am unable to articulate, Sprint's merger with T-Mobile is not in the best interest of our Nation. I hope I was able to communicate to you in the right spirit and be of help to my United States of America. 3924 Ashford Dunwoody Rd Atlanta, GA 30319 716-574- ENDORSEMENT: The Clerk of Court is directed to enter into the public record of this action the letter above submitted to the Court by Manish Dube.
