11/13/2019		MINUTE ORDER: In United States v. Hubbard , 650 F.2d 293, 31722 (D.C. Cir. 1980), the D.C. Circuit set forth six factors to consider in evaluating a motion to seal: (1) the need for public access to the documents at issue; (2) the extent of previous public access to the documents; (3) the fact that someone has objected to disclosure, and the identity of that person; (4) the strength of any property and privacy interest asserted; (5) the possibility of prejudice to those opposing disclosure; and (6) the purposes for which the documents were introduced during the judicial proceedings. Upon consideration of these factors, it is hereby ORDERED that Plaintiff United States's 31 Consent Motion for Leave to File under Seal is GRANTED. The Clerk's Office is directed to seal Plaintiff United States's 31 Consent Motion for Leave to File under Seal and [31-1] Exhibit 1. 01/08/2020		MINUTE ORDER: The attorneys general of seventeen states and the District of Columbia have moved to file a brief as amici curae. ECF No. 34. To the extent they seek the Court's permission to file their brief, they do not need it. LCvR 7(o)(1). Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED that their [34-1] Brief as Amici Curae is deemed filed. However, to the extent their brief can be characterized as a motion for a stay or to otherwise delay these proceedings, the Court will deny it. As a threshold matter, the Court notes that by filing as amici, each attorney general does not become "a party to the action, but is merely a friend of the court whose sole function is to advise, or make suggestions to, the court." Artis-Bey v. Thornburgh , CIV. A. No. 88-3240, 1989 WL 39023, at *1 (D.D.C. Apr. 14, 1989) (citation omitted); see also United States v. Microsoft Corp. , No. CIV. A. 94-1564, 1995 WL 121107, at *1 (D.D.C. Mar. 14, 1995) (observing that "amici not having party status do not have all the rights of a party, including the right of full participation in the proceedings"); Jin v. Ministry of State Sec. , 557 F. Supp. 2d 131, 136 (D.D.C. 2008) ("It is solely within the court's discretion to determine 'the fact, extent, and manner' of [amici's] participation." (citation omitted)). In addition, amici have not shown that a stay is appropriate. The Court "has a broad discretion in granting or denying stays." McSurely v. McClellan , 426 F.2d 664, 671 (D.C. Cir. 1970). Despite this discretion, "it is well established that a stay pending the resolution of unrelated legal proceedings is an extraordinary remedy." Nat'l Indus. for Blind v. Dep't of Veterans Affairs , 296 F. Supp. 3d 131, 137 (D.D.C. 2017). "If there is 'even a fair possibility that a stay would adversely affect another party, the movant for the stay must demonstrate a 'clear case of hardship or inequity in being required to go forward.'" Id. at 137-38 (quoting Landis v. N. Am. Co. , 299 U.S. 248, 254 (1936)). Here, the parties have plausibly argued that they or the public would, in one way or another, be harmed by a delay. See ECF No. 36 at 7-10; ECF No. 37 at 2; ECF No. 39 at 2-3. And amici have not persuasively argued that proceeding in the ordinary course would result in any hardship or inequity to them or others. For these reasons, to the extent amici have moved for a stay, their motion is hereby DENIED. It is further ORDERED that the parties shall appear for a telephonic status conference on January 10, 2020, at 2:00 p.m. They shall promptly contact the Courtroom Deputy at (202) 354-3495 to make arrangements to do so. 01/10/2020		MINUTE ORDER: Pursuant to this Court's inherent authority, and in light of the Tunney Act's flexible procedural framework, see 15 U.S.C. § 16(f), the Court establishes the following parameters governing how interested amici may participate in this proceeding. First, all potential amici shall file or, if required, move for leave to file an amicus brief no later than January 24, 2020. See LCvR 7(o)(1). Second, any amicus brief shall not exceed 20 pages in length. Third, all potential amici who must seek the Court's permission to file an amicus brief--that is, all potential amici other than the United States, its officers or agencies, or states--are instructed that their brief should not merely repeat arguments or assertions that they previously raised in comments they filed pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 16(b), to which the Court has access. Fourth, all potential amici who are plaintiffs in State of New York et al. v. Deutsche Telekom AG et al. , Case No. 1:19-cv-05434-VM (S.D.N.Y. filed June 11, 2019), if they choose to file an amicus brief, shall file only a single, consolidated brief. Fifth, all potential amici shall address in their briefs only the precise and limited issues before the Court in this proceeding. Sixth, all potential amici are advised that strict compliance with this Court's local rules is required. See, e.g. , LCvR 7(o). Participation that fails to comply with these parameters will not be permitted without leave of the Court. See Jin v. Ministry of State Sec. , 557 F. Supp. 2d 131, 136 (D.D.C. 2008) ("It is solely within the court's discretion to determine 'the fact, extent, and manner' of [amici's] participation." (citation omitted)); 15 U.S.C. § 16(f)(3). Finally, the parties may file briefs responding to the arguments presented by all
