

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS

RYAN, LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION,

Defendant.

Civil Action No. 3:24-cv-986-E

RYAN, LLC'S OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

This Court should deny the Federal Trade Commission's motion for summary judgment. ECF 184. Each of the matters required by Local Rule 56.4 are set forth in Ryan, LLC's accompanying consolidated reply brief in support of its motion for summary judgment and in opposition to Defendant Federal Trade Commission's motion for summary judgment.

As more fully explained in the accompanying brief and Ryan's brief in support of its summary judgment motion, ECF 167, Ryan is entitled to judgment as a matter of law on its claims that the Non-Compete Rule violates the Administrative Procedure Act because (1) the Commission lacked statutory authority to promulgate the Non-Compete Rule; (2) if Congress did grant such authority, it did so in violation of the non-delegation doctrine; (3) the Rule is unlawfully retroactive; (4) the Commission's reasons for adopting the Rule are arbitrary and capricious; and (5) the Commission is unconstitutionally insulated from presidential control. Ryan is also entitled to judgment on its identical claims under the Declaratory Judgment Act. This Court therefore should grant Ryan's motion for summary judgment, deny the Commission's motion for summary judgment, and enter judgment for Ryan. As explained in the accompanying brief and Ryan's brief in support of its summary judgment motion, the proper remedy is vacatur of the Non-Compete Rule on a nationwide basis.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: August 9, 2024
