12/19/2014	38	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  On December 12, 2014, the court held an unrecorded telephonic preliminary pretrial conference that devolved into something closer to a status conference. Because there are different paths this case could take depending on the resolution of the pending motions, the court limited its scheduling to a few events. First, defendants' deadline to reply in support of their motion to dismiss is extended to January 5, 2015. Next, plaintiff reported that it intends to file on

		December 22, 2014 a motion to unseal the sealed documents that defendants filed along with their response to the preliminary injunction motion. If plaintiff files this motion, then plaintiff's deadline to reply in support of its PI motion is stricken; defendants may have until January 5, 2015 to respond to this motion; and plaintiff may have until January 12, 2015 to reply. As a placeholder, the court set jury selection and trial for April 11, 2016 at 9:00 a.m. The court will set interstitial dates and deadlines as necessary in consultation with the parties after it has ruled on the pending motion to dismiss and motion for a preliminary injunction. Signed by Magistrate Judge Stephen L. Crocker on 12/19/14. (jat) (Entered: 12/19/2014)

02/04/2015	51	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  On December 19, 2014, the court indicated that it would strike plaintiff's December 30, 2014 deadline to reply in support of its PI motion if plaintiff chose to file a motion to unseal the sealed documents that defendants had filed along with their response to the preliminary injunction motion . Plaintiff filed a motion to unseal (dkt. 39 ). In the course of briefing this motion, defendants advised the court (in dkt. 43 ) that they were withdrawing their reliance on the sealed documents in opposing the preliminary injunction motion. As a result, the motion to unseal is no longer relevant to the preliminary injunction (although there is at least some indication that it may be relevant to the discovery process).

		The court remains willing to entertain a reply by plaintiff in support of its motion for a preliminary injunction, dkt. 2 . Plaintiff's reply deadline is February 18, 2015. Also by February 18, 2015, the parties should provide their position(s), jointly or singly, on whether the motion to unseal still is relevant to any matter in this lawsuit and whether further briefing is needed on this issue. Signed by Magistrate Judge Stephen L. Crocker on 2/4/15. (jat) (Entered: 02/04/2015)

02/19/2015	60	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  Defendants' motion for a one-week extension of their deadline to answer or otherwise respond 54 is granted without the need for a response from plaintiff. 02/23/2015	62	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  Plaintiff's motion (dkt. 39 ) to unseal dkt. nos. 23, 24, 25 and 26 is DENIED as moot because defendants have withdrawn all reliance on the sealed portions of those documents for purposes of contesting plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction. The documents at issue include defendants' brief and supporting documents in response to plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction. Plaintiff argues that resolution of the motion still is necessary for settlement discussions between the parties. However, it is not the court's role to intervene in the parties' settlement negotiations by ordering one of the parties to do something it doesn't want to do. A disagreement of this sort is solely between the parties. Plaintiff also contends that the sealed information may be relevant if defendants raise a "meeting competition defense," If this comes to pass, then plaintiff should first seek such information during discovery, then file a motion to compel if defendants refuse to provide it. Signed by Magistrate Judge Stephen L. Crocker on 2/20/15. (jat) (Entered: 02/23/2015)

05/12/2015	82	 TEXT ONLY ORDER   Now that the court has determined that it has subject matter jurisdiction over plaintiff's Robinson-Patman Act claims 77 , the court is prepared to rule on plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction 2 . However, plaintiff has filed an amended complaint adding a new claim under the Sherman Act 78 . In light of this, plaintiff must clarify whether it intends to pursue its original request for the preliminary injunction or intends to amend it. Tied into this is the possible effect on the injunction analysis of any new motion to dismiss that defendants might file on May 18, 2015 in response to the amended complaint. Therefore, not later than May 26, 2015, plaintiff must report whether it intends to pursue its request for a preliminary injunction and, if so, whether
